

EVS

Noise Pollution:-

Q1. Define noise pollution.

→ Noise pollution can be defined as regular exposure of elevated sound levels that may lead to adverse effect on humans or other living organisms.

Q2. Enlist the causes and effects of noise pollution.

Noise pollution can come from a variety of sources, but the three main damaging sources are:-

- (i) Industrial machinery
- (ii) vehicles
- (iii) Construction of buildings etc.

Effect of Noise pollution:-

Noise pollution affects both health and behaviour. unwanted sound (noise) can damage physiological health. Noise pollution can cause hypertension, high stress levels, hearing loss, sleep disturbances and other harmful and disturbing effects.

Q3. What do you understand by the term 'Acoustic Zoning'?

→ city ~~only~~ territory in zones with homogeneous environmental noise levels.